

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

ABOUT CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice (CRJU) program prepares learners to enter or advance their careers in a wide array of criminal justice and social service-related fields. Graduates learn to apply social sciences methods, such as community mapping and crime analysis.

IN-DEMAND CAREERS

- Victim Advocate
- Corrections Treatment Specialist
- Probation Officer
- Sheriff
- Police Chief
- Juvenile Justice Specialist
- Criminal Profiler
- Legal Professions and the Courts

AVERAGE STARTING SALARY

$48,000 per year

PROJECTED JOB GROWTH

The United States Department of Labor predicts above average job growth for community and social service managers. Demand in these fields is expected to increase 12% by 2031.

EMPLOYERS HIRING CRJU GRADUATES

- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- State and County Offices
- Branches of the U.S. Military
- Law Offices of Edward S. McCallum, III
- Pickens County Advocacy Center
- McCravy Newlon & Sturkie Law Firm

CALL US FOR MORE INFO

864-503-7005

meierk@uscupstate.edu

uscupstate.edu/apply